The '95 TFHS Golf team completed another successful season, going 8-7 and competing in the team tournament, which was held at the Country Club of Pittsfield.

Seniors Brian Kuczenski and Mike Wasielewski were the anchors of the team. Both of these young men played very well during the season with "Wuzzie's" highlight coming May 22 when he carded an all-time low score of 34 at Thomas Memorial Country Club against Greenfield.

The underclassmen also played a key role in the team's wins. Eric Adams, Eric Demers, Adam O'Sullivan and Mike Doyle were all instrumental in key wins for the Turners Linksters. The highlight for the underclassmen had to be on April 24 when Eric Adams stepped up to the 7th tee at Thomas Memorial using a nine iron, and knocked the ball into the cup for his first hole in one ever. All in all, the team had a very favorable season and they look forward to the '96 campaign.

Softball '95

During the 1995 season, Softball Hall of Fame Coach, Mr. Mullins took the reins of a young and inexperienced team. The team was led by a group of four returning starters who served as the team's captains: Kate Hildreth, Becky Rushford, Beth Grybko, and Jillian Mackin. This young team made it through quite a season. They qualified for the tournament but were defeated in the quarterfinals. They return 5 starters for the 1996 season and should put up quite a fight.

Sitting: captains K. Hildreth, B. Rushford, B. Grybko, J. Mackin. Second row: M. Dorsey, S. Kalinowski, A. Villeneuve, N. Rooney, J. Young. Back row: L. Rodriguez, B. Waryasz, G. McAuliffe, B. Sokoloski, J. Williams, and Coach Gary Mullins.

Our season started with many open spots due to graduation and many holes to be filled. With only a handful of upperclassmen on the team, we opened the season starting 5 freshmen. Early in the season we played great team baseball and we won our second game of the season against Frontier.

As the year went on, our youth started to show and we ended up losing many close games. This was reflected in our record as we finished 2-14.

This year with 9 starters returning with a year of experience, our expectations have increased and we are looking forward to a competitive winning season.

CLASS MEMORIES

At last we are Seniors, and it is finally our time to shine. It seems like only yesterday that we all walked into T.F.H.S. as shy and intimidated Freshmen. Many of us were anxious for our Senior year, but now that it is here we wonder where the time has gone.

As Freshmen we experienced our first floatmaking competition. The category was board games and although we lost, we knew in our hearts, we had accomplished a togetherness that we had not had before. We were proudly represented by Knight, Eric Adams, and Lady-in-Waiting, Katie Rosewarne.

We encountered a great obstacle at the beginning of our Sophomore year; we needed to find a class advisor. We were more than delighted when two parents stepped forward to share the reins, Mrs. Terry Luippold and Mrs. Debby Powers. With their encouragement, we began to work on our float. The theme was movies, and we chose Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs. To our dismay, it was not picked as the winner. Rick Deome and Alissa Felton were chosen to represent the class as Duke and Duchess.

In our Junior year, our '50's float was unsuccessful in catching the judges' vote again, but to brighten our spirits, our class was represented by Prince and Princess, George Olsen and Eleanor Berwick. Our Pins for the Prom bowl-a-thon had a wonderful turnout of Juniors and Seniors and was very successful. We hope it turns out to be an annual event to raise money for the prom. "One Moment in time" by Whitney Houston was held at the Inn in Northampton on April 29, 1995.

Finally when Senior year began, many were determined to start it off with a bang. This determination and dedication brought us together to win the Booster Day float competition with our Birth of the United Nations Float in remembrance of World War II. Our school spirit shone through as David Pillsbury and Jillian Mackin proudly represented the class as King and Queen. We realized this year that together, in one way or another, we were all friends.

As we go our separate ways, we know we will never forget the times we have spent together. The friends we've made will never be forgotten. We give special thanks to our parents and both of our advisors for helping us through the years. Thanks also to Mrs. Joan Jacques and John Burek for opening their house to us these past three years to build our floats. To all of you who have yet to graduate, live these years to their fullest for they are like a shooting star and if you blink, you may miss out on the beauty that they possess.

- Jill Mackin

DEDICATION

In the beginning of our high school career, we were notified that our class advisor could no longer keep the position. Stranded as a class, we were unsure of our future.

As gifts from God, Terry Luippold and Debbie Powers stepped forth. Though they were totally unsure of what they were taking on, they were ready and willing to do whatever they could to help us.

It didn't take long for us to realize how lucky we were to have them. In their unique little ways, they taught and helped us more in three years than anyone could have expected them to.

Contributing their ideas and thoughts to fundraising, floatmaking, the prom, and our class trip, they never ceased to amaze us. But more than just helping us with class activities, they showed us how to work together. This is a skill we can take with us out of high school, and use as we venture out into the "Real World."

The one thing we will never forget about Terry and Debbie is the humor and love they added to our lives. When they became our class advisors, they also became our role models, and most important, our friends. The time and effort you have given us will never be forgotten! We have all grown as individuals just by having known you. From the bottom of our hearts...We love you!!

Love,
The Class of 1996

Terry has always brightened our spirits with her humor!

IN LOVING MEMORY OF BOBBY PEZZUTO

September 6, 1977-June 5, 1993
"I thank my God upon every remembrance of you." - Phil. 1:3

Robert "Bobby" Pezzuto Jr. was a young man who deeply touched the hearts of everyone who knew him. He was light-hearted, full of energy, loving, caring, and carefree. He loved being in the outdoors, hunting and fishing. Other hobbies of his were collecting bugs and reptiles, and riding his all-terrain vehicle with his brother, Jared. Bobby would have graduated this year. We all miss him dearly.

THE OF

JUNIORS, SOPHOMORES AND FRESHMEN

CLASS OF 1997

Our Junior year started out with our Booster Day float, a revival of what it was like on the homefront during World War Two. Representing our class as Prince and Princess were Philip Villeneuve and Melissa Currie. Our float did not place first, but it was first in everyone's heart who worked so hard on it.

The fall Bottle and Can Drive started the class off for many fundraising projects to come; the reason for this is we will be hosting the prom on Friday, May 3 at the Delaney House in Holyoke.

In the spring, many of us will be taking the SAT tests, looking for the perfect college, and knowing that it won't be long until our Senior year.

BOOST-
ER WEEK
95'

CLASS OF 1998

Another year has gone by and we move one step closer to the top. We had a very busy sophomore year. Mrs. Valley, our advisor, helped us to do many activities and events.

We had a fundraising year, starting off by selling magazines and carnations.

The theme for this year's Booster Day was World War Two. Floatmaking changed locations. It was at Jen Kennedy's house where we worked on our float "Coming Home". Although we didn't get the trophy, we had a fun time building it.

Scott Sibley and Gretchen McAuliffe represented the class as Duke and Duchess.

We're looking toward the future and what next year will bring to us.

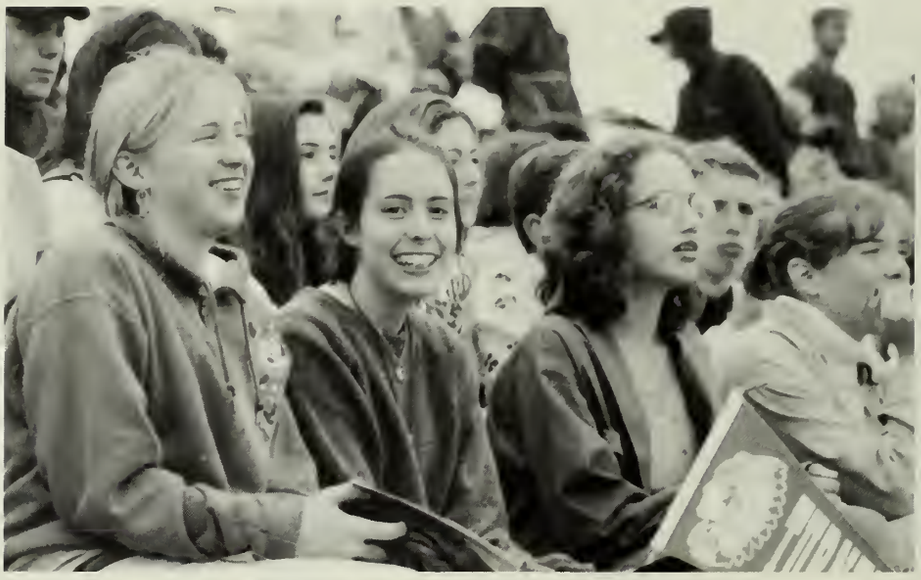
CLASS OF 1999



The freshman class has been at Turners Falls High School for less than a full school year. Our new adventure began in confusion with new schedules, lockers, faculty and some new classmates. Our first big undertaking was the Booster Day float. The school theme was World War Two. For our float, we constructed the battleship U.S.S. Missouri, reenacting the signing of the formal peace agreement between the United States and Japan. We spent two weeks working on the float at Mr. O'Riley's house. This experience was great fun and helped us unite as a class. Molly Block and James Martineau represented our class as Lady-in-Waiting and Knight. Our class is having fun and still striving to reach the potential and possibilities we, individually and as a class, can attain during our remaining years at T.F.H.S.

DRACULA

The second annual Turners Falls Drama Club fall non-musical production of Dracula was a breakthrough because for the first time we were performing a non-comedy play and we had our biggest cast yet. It was definitely a challenge for the top notch cast of this John McGuire adapted play. We were backed by a good stage crew, costume and make-up crew, technical crew and of course, Mr. John McGuire, our director, who helped make this our most unique play to date.

The Cast:

B. Allis, J. Bartus, E. Bouthillier, M. Brenner, C. Brunelle, N. Corey, J. Crowley, J. Czernich, A. Dion, D. Glaser, M. Glazier, H. Hansen, K. Hayden, T. Henry, J. House, T. Jacobs, D. Johnson, B. BOOSTER WEEK/HOMECOMING

Booster Day/Homecoming had a special focus this year. For most of September and into October, the school focused on World War II. Booster Week was the culmination of the curriculum unit and we incorporated the theme into our sports celebration.

As a 50th Anniversary Site for commemorating the end of World War II, we had visits to the classroom by male and female WWII veterans. Our students conducted interviews with relatives and neighbors who either served on the homefront or warfront. On October 5, students, veterans, their families, and the public came to the high school to experience a remarkable "Night Of Memories". As a final tribute, Veterans joined us in our parade on Booster Day. The band's halftime show included music from the era. Many of us will never forget this wonderful time of sharing events from our country's history.

Our school was designated a commemorative school at a special ceremony held in September.

" The night of memories" brought together the students, faculty and community for sharing memories and information regarding World War II.. The evening ended with the rally and a bonfire.

Makes Their Mark

We started off the year with 2 big wins. This gave us confidence going into our 3rd game. Although we lost, we came back and defeated Ludlow on Booster Day. This would be the last time that we tasted victory. We then lost to 3 quality opponents in the next 3 weeks. We traveled to Palmer and played with emotion but ended up losing a close game. The final league game matched us with Mahar and we played our game of the year - losing by only 2 points. With Turkey Day looming ahead, we practiced hard to get ready only to wind up with a loss.

Although we did not have the record that we wanted, we played with heart and desire throughout the year.

Chris Bray is open for the jumper.
Athol gets a turnover because of Renee's tough defense.
Beth looks for an open pass.

Bottom L-R:

Tony dribbles down the court looking for an open pass.

FIELD HOCKEY '95

Although the T.F.H.S. Field Hockey team did not have a winning season, they deserve a lot of recognition. They had dedication and determination to work hard the whole season even though the losses greatly outnumbered the wins.

The team worked well together. The front line included Jenn Lilly and Lisa Rodriguez. Backing up in mid-field were Hillary Pervier, Liz Prasol, Kelly Klaiber, Carolyn Lemere, and Cori SanSoucie. A strong defense was played by Kate Black, Renee Reipold, Nicole Allenby, Kelly Niedbala and Jackie Young, Elizabeth Klaiber, the rookie goalie really came through when needed.

A great thanks is given to Mrs. Evelyn Bogue for always being there.

T.F.H.S. CHEERING

Bottom left: The three seniors, Julie Luippold, Eleanor Berwick and Lisa Hescock have shown their spirit and dedication to their squad, and leave with wonderful memories of cheerleading.

Winning or losing, the girls always cheer on.

T.F.H.S. SOCCER '95

Standing: Rick Kovalsick, Mr. Mullins, Dan Prasol, Scott Sibley, David Glaser, Gary Boulden, Sorrel Coulson-Evans, Dave Hmieleski, John Martineau, Phil Villeneuve. Kneeling: Chris Mazloski, Josh Martin, Rick Kelly, Luke Voiland, Emrys Berwick, Ben Tozloski, Craig Roach, Jim Martineau. Sitting: Danny Fama, Dave Pillsbury, Mike Mullins, and Eric Desbien.

Middle Left: Look at the concentration on Rick's face! Middle Right: Josh prepares to take off on one of his sideline express carries.

This was a season of heart. Each player dug deep and found how hard they can work even when the game is out of reach. This year we had seven Freshmen join us. The skill and desire to play in these players was more than I had seen in Freshmen for awhile. I consider myself lucky to have been able to play with this team for this season and many of the players for more than that. This team has a great deal of skill and potential. I regret that I cannot stay longer to see this team grow. Good luck next year boys.

- David Pillsbury, Captain

Left: Craig pushes away an opponent twice his size to win the ball. Right: Sorrel stretches to tackle the ball away. Below Left: Mike fights for the ball as Rick and Craig look on.

VOLLEYBALL '95

The Turners Falls High School volleyball team ended the regular season with a 15-3 record. All through the season, Mrs. Loomer asked for 100% attitude. Our inspiration was the Michael Jordan quote: "I never want to feel that hole in my stomach again." Making it to the Western Massachusetts Finals, we finished the season at 17-4. With many lessons learned this season, we all left with R-E-S-P-E C-T.

The team stretches: "Doin' the butt" at Central High School during the semi-finals.

Kristin Mullins passes the ball beautifully up to the front.

A TOURNAMENT SEASON

Left: Carolyn Fiorey concentrates on the volleyball as she prepares to serve an ace, no doubt.

HALLOWEEN AT T.F.H.S.

Halloween was especially successful this year. The Drama Club was instrumental in promoting enthusiasm for the "spirit" of masquerade.

Right: Mary Foster and Sarah Richotte; Middle: Jason Czernich; Chris Brunelle, Danny Prasol and Jaime Young; Ellie Berwick, Lisa Hescock, and Julie Luippold.

Right: Kristy Hayden.
Below: Jaime Young and Jen Selivanoff; Amanda Dion and Matt Brenner; Emily Bouthillier and Jessie Crowley.

I love you,

Dave,
In the time we have been together, you have become a very important part of my life. Your love and support means the world to me. Thanks for everything and always remember I'll be here for you whenever you need me. I love you.

Love, Kelly

Kel,
The years have flown by so fast. It seems like just yesterday we were at your house playing with Barbies. We have both grown so much, and so has our friendship. You've always been like a sister and you've always been here, just like I will be here for you always. I wish you all the luck in the world. Remember "follow the stars".

Kelly,
We wish you:

an abundance of happiness and of course
lots of love.

Gail, Skip and Philip

Kelly,
I can't wait to go visit you at college and have you introduce me to all the nice guys.
Well, actually I can wait. I'm going to miss our car rides, with you harassing me and me bending your fingers, our trips to the mall, and especially our talks. So many everyday things will be so different without you here.
I'll always be looking forward to your coming home for visits and holidays. College will be an experience we'll all remember.
I love you so much.

Liz

You are a very unique young lady. You've grown from such a cute little girl to a beautiful young lady with good values. Always remember we love you very much and appreciate the person you have become. You're a great granddaughter with goals and the determination to reach them.

of things to come, now you've grown so tall.
You're kind and thoughtful, steadfast and true...
the world's at your feet, just waiting for you.
With love and a hug, you'll soon be on your way...
a beautiful young woman stands before us today.

Always the poet, that's Dad! Kelly, be happy and above all, continue to be true to yourself.

Love, Mom and Dad

Miche, ☎
We have seen your goodness, admired your courage, felt your compassion and shared your pain - sometimes you knew ...many times you didn't.
As you face the challenges before you, do so with trust and conviction - believing in yourself - your talents and the wisdom to use them wisely. We believe in you and all the things that are important to you. May you always walk in sunshine.
Congratulations!

CONGRATULATIONS AND BEST OF LUCK

LOVE, MOM AND DAD

Julie,

When I held you in my arms for the very first time,
I thought I could never love you more....
But then you grew.
In those precious baby times - through your first smile, your first tooth, your first steps.
I thought I could never love you more...
But then you grew.
In those sweet toddler times -
the endless days of curiosity and adventures and discoveries
I thought I could never love you more...
But then you grew.
And in those wonderful little girl times - those days of hurt knees and hurt feelings, of making friends and taking in the world around you,
I thought I could never love you more....
But then you grew.
And in those lovely young woman times - those times of moods and mysteries, and joys and heartaches,
I thought I could never love you more....
But then you grew.
And still, always, day by day, you keep growing.... more and more beautiful... Nearer and dearer to my heart.
I'm so proud of you.

Love,
Mom

Julie,
You're finally graduating and I can't believe it. I wish you the best of luck in the future. "And I love you man."
